In Atlanta: The bar is packed? No problem for customers sitting at the four "beer tables" at Stats Sports Bar, each with two self-service taps.

10 great places to forge fun

Nightlife spots are playing off the do-it-yourself trend by inviting partiers to create their fun. Zagat editor Eric Grossman dishes with USA TODAY's Rebecca Heslin about haunts that encourage participation.

Stats Sports Bar

Atlanta

"Conveniently located a Hail Mary (pass) from the Georgia Dome and Phillips Arena, this huge bar is a sports fan's dream thanks to not only the plethora of giant TVs, but because it was the first bar in the USA to feature self-service beer taps," Grossman says. "Each of the four state-of-the-art 'beer tables' feature two personal beer taps, ensuring thirsty fans never have to flag down a server again." 404-885-1472; statsatl.com
